

I bought a Corel Vector PRO subscription, but I'm still seeing the trial message.

- AfterShot

You may have bought the PRO subscription using another email account. Log out of your current account and log in using the other account you have created earlier. Please contact support with the reference number so we can verify the email that was used to fulfill the order.
