

When I import a file, some items open differently in Corel Vector than in the original file. What should I do?

- AfterShot

You should check for special settings in the original software that exported the file and try again. If the issue persists, please contact support with more details.
