

Does a green screen come with Studio Ultimate 12

- Pinnacle Legacy

A green screen may or may not be included with Studio Ultimate 12. It depends on the specific package that was purchased. Some stores or regions may require smaller boxes that do not accommodate a green screen to be included. Make sure that you read the included package contents listed on the box to be certain what is included.

Note: Pinnacle Systems reserves the right to change the package contents at any time without notice or obligation.
