Poor performance in the Menu Editor when applying motions

- Pinnacle Studio

You may experience poor performance such as jerky preview or missing inlay in the Menu Editor if you apply motions to objects in the menu and there is video set as a background. This is only a preview issue in the Menu Editor. The menu should preview properly outside of the editor after any background rendering has finished.

© 1985-2024 Corel. All rights reserved.