

Install Error: The installation needs an essential program to finish the installation process correctly

- Pinnacle Studio

In some cases it is possible that during the Studio installation you may receive the error: "The installation needs an essential program to finish the installation process correctly." If this error occurs, it is possible that the Windows Update is running at the same time as the Studio installation. In this case wait for the Windows Update to complete and then try installing Studio again.