

VideoStudio: Enabling Render Preview

- VideoStudio

Enabling the preview during render can be accomplished by pressing the preview button when the process has begun. This method will allow you to see where in the rendering cycle the progress is, without the audio.

To the left of the progress bar, click the button as indicated in the image above:

Once depressed the project will show in the preview window

---