

PhotoMirage: Switching language in PhotoMirage

- Corel Other

You can change the language that is displayed in PhotoMirage. This option can be helpful for international or multilingual users or for users sharing workstation in an international corporate environment.

?

To switch the application language

Select File > Switch Language

Then select the preferred language > Click OK

There will be a message box that notifies to restart the application, click OK. The selected language is displayed after the application is restarted.